Jeff Robinson : God and Guns: Freedom in a Time of Crisis before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised God and Guns: Freedom in a Time of Crisis:

God and Guns is a biblical view of the right to bear arms. If you love either God or Guns you'll love this book as you see how guns lower crime and even prevent crime. God and Guns is packed with helpful tactics that will prepare you in an encounter, including the aftermath. Also included is a gun log and safety tips to keep you and your loved ones safe. First, we must find out what Jesus has to say about the subject of putting our faith in a man-made weapon for survival. You might be surprised and find a new sense of joy as you realize He promoted the carrying of weapons. Be careful, this life changing book may alter the world as you see it.

About the Author Jeff Robinson was born and raised on the East Coast where he had studied the Bible for over two decades. He decided to relocate in the heart of Arizona where carrying a firearm is widely accepted. That is where he soon became a gun advocate and found himself being bombarded with both Easterners back home and his local church family asking, "Isn't it wrong for a Christian to carry a gun?" Most Christians do not believe God and guns go together. Jeff realized that there are millions of people all over the world who don't know about the Christian's right to defend oneself; nor what the Bible's position is on this subject. In his research he soon found himself in nine different debates with Christian pacifist Pastors, and through deep research of the scriptures, they have agreed on his position, and have encouraged him to write this book.
