Carol Moore : Guilford County and the Civil War (Civil War Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Guilford County and the Civil War (Civil War Series):

Guilford County residents felt the brutal impact of the Civil War on both the homefront and the battlefield. From the plight of antislavery Quakers to the strength of women, the county was awash in political turmoil. Intriguing abolitionists, fire-breathing secessionists, peacemakers, valiant soldiers and carpetbaggers are some of the figures who contributed to the chaotic time. General Joseph E. Johnston's parole of the Army of Tennessee at Greensboro, as well as the birth of a free black community following the Confederate defeat, brought amazing changes. Local author and historian Carol Moore traces the romantic days in the lead-up to war, the horrors of war itself and the decades of aftermath that followed.

About the Author Carol Moore is a writer and public speaker in Guilford County, North Carolina.
