More will be revealed about Double Dutch in my upcoming book on Frederick Beesley. Watch for it on !

In 1885, Holland Holland advertised their new trademark, 'The Royal', intended to apply to their best guns and rifles only. 'Royal' guns and rifles have been in production since that date, symbolizing excellence. This brand new edition brings the history of the company up to date. Written with the full approval and cooperation of Holland Holland, this is the authoritative history of the company. Appendices cover all 51 patents, the dating of Holland serial numbers from 1855 to the present day, illustrations of trade labels, and the development of the rifle cartridges, including the .700 Nitro Express. Beautifully illustrated throughout with new photographs. Foreword by Daryl Greatrex, Managing Director of Holland Holland

About the Author: Historian Donald Dallas lives in Fife, Scotland. From an early age, he developed an interest in sporting guns and the history of their development. Dallas conducts historical research into gunmaking families, technical developments, and contemporary periodicals to ensure that his publications are original and accurate. This is Dallas's tenth book on gunmaking history. His previous Quiller titles include Boss Co (978-1-904057-63-5); The British Sporting Gun and Rifle (978-1-84689-032-1); David McKay Brown (978-1-84689-100-7); and James Purdey Sons (978-1-84689-164-9).
