on a great cabinet maker this is one. it is not a story book but a research tool.

A contemporary of Duncan Phyfe, French-born New York cabinet maker Charles-Honore Lannuier (1779-1819) was a leading figure in the development of a distinctive and highly refined furniture style in the Late Federal period. This study of Lannuier's life and work discusses his family and origins in France, his clients, and his work. Approximately 275 illustrations, 100 in full color.
