A magnificent array of antique silver objects from England, France and Italy is presented in this unusual catalogue. Its tablet-like format signals the crucial role played today by state-of-the-art electronic media in the service of silver collecting. Among the silversmiths whose work features in the book are: Edward Feline; Paul de Lamerie; Lewis Mettayer; Jacques-Nicolas Roettiers; Rundell, Bridge Rundell; Paul Storr, and David Willaume II. Each object is given a full technical and historical description. Paul Storr's great dinner service made for Sir John Gladstone, father of the former prime minister, is also given several pages of illustrations, while the Italian Renaissance tazza with central figure of Vespasian made for Cardinal Pietro Aldobrandini is discussed at length. A panoramic view of a selection of items from the Gladstone Dinner Service is shown in a colorful fold-out. Published in conjunction with displays shown at: TEFAF, Maastricht, 14th-23rd March 2014; Masterpiece, London, 26th June-2nd July 2014; Fine Art Asia, Hong Kong, 4th-7th October 2014; International Fine Art Antique Dealers' Fair, New York, 17th-23rd October 2014.
