Robert G. Babcock, Mark L. Sosower : Learning from the Greeks: An Exhibition Commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Founding of the Aldine Press before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Learning from the Greeks: An Exhibition Commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Founding of the Aldine Press:

Exhibition Catalogue of the many Greek manuscripts that were on display at the Beinecke Rare Book Manuscript Library in 1994 and then later at the Grolier Club. The exhibition celebrated the five-hundredth anniversary of the Aldine Press, which was founded in 1494 by the famous Italian printer Aldus Manutius. Manutius wanted to promote the Greek culture in his printings as well as Latin and Italian classics through his publishing. Black and white illustrations. 83 pages. stiff paper wrappers. 4to..
