Albert Doane, Bill Jackson, Paula Shorf, Bruce Waterhouse Jr., Matthew Weisman : Lorain: The Real Photo Postcards of Willis Leiter (Postcard History) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lorain: The Real Photo Postcards of Willis Leiter (Postcard History):

When Willis A. Leiter established his photography studio in Lorain in 1901, he found a thriving community on the shore of Lake Erie. He captured the spirit of the times through his photographs of ship launchings, steel production, community events, and charming views of people and places. The Leiter Studio, known for its quality portraiture, embraced the golden age of postcards (1905-1915) and published thousands of real photo postcards of Lorain and the surrounding areas. Many of these postcards survive today, and they provide a unique retrospective view of Lorain during a simpler era.
