A beautiful book! This sequel to Made in Czechoslovakia further illustrates the bold artistry of Czech glass, pottery, and porcelain exported to the United States from 1918 to 1938. Shown in full color are 672 pieces of pottery and porcelain, along with 343 glass perfume bottles. No duplication from the earlier book! Included are spectacular ceramic figurines of people, birds, and animals. The author discusses and illustrates peasant art, Art Deco, Amphora, Majolica, Lusterware, lamps, art pottery, kitchen sets, figurals, and dinner sets. One section features drawings of 69 different trademarks. A revised price guide is free with book purchase.
